

OneCore Financial Leasing App Hire purchase processes of cars, equipment and electronics under one roof

70%

saving time due to bulk changes in the portfolio of contracts

99%

error rate reduction in the data processing

100%

connection with the Accounting module and the asset module

OneCore Financial Leasing App helps to manage all moveable capital goods from vehicles to manufacturing equipment.

Hire purchase software automates your day-to-day operations, easily adapts to all your needs or changing requirements and helps process large amounts of data. The processes of object identification and leasing calculation are made quickly and in flexible ways. Combine financial leasing agenda with customer and contract management in a single application in the Microsoft Dynamics 365 Business Central environment.

Price

748 €/ $

per month

Top Features

Smart leasing calculation creation by using wizards and predefined settings

Quick object identification with legal identification and history of the object

Flexible payment calendar with a variability of payments, due dates and invoices

Contract workflow including changes of interests, principal, period

Tracking of incomes, controlling late payments, application of reminders and penalties

Direct connection to the customer database, asset card, accounting module and bank account

Online data reporting by using Power BI or your own Excel report layouts

Connection with Microsoft Dynamics 365 Business Central